ProClarity and Thorogood

Better, Faster ProClarity Implementations

Unparalleled experience from the three times winner of ProClarity's European Partner of the Year award, and developer of this year's award-winning solution.

ProClarity

ProClarity has been the fastest growing analytical tool in the market for each of the past three years. Thorogood is ProClarity's leading partner, having achieved the accolade of European Partner of the Year three years in a row.

Thorogood

Thorogood has built its success on thirteen years of complete focus on business intelligence applications. To unparalleled experience in business intelligence applications it can now add unparalleled experience in implementing ProClarity in the most demanding applications for the most demanding customers. Thorogood experience ensures that it delivers ProClarity applications better, faster and cheaper than any of its competitors.

We can provide potential clients with client approved case studies of ProClarity applications that we have delivered. We can provide client references. And we can also discuss, subject to client approval, applications that are currently being delivered

Applications

Find out how Thorogood uses ProClarity in all the following applications

A global demand forecasting system for a major pharmaceutical company

A service management system for a major property services company.

A management information system for a major bank

A global scorecard for a global consumer packaged goods company

A European market research solution for a global paper products company

An advertising analysis solution for a global media company.

Solutions
